FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Standlee Premium Products, LLC®, Announces New President

January 1, 2021, Kimberly, Idaho - - Standlee Premium Products, LLC®, (Standlee) is pleased to announce the promotion of Scott Plew to President. Plew will work closely with the CEO and Executive Committee, as he continues to oversee finance, marketing, sales, and procurement to pursue ambitious growth and innovation goals for the company.

Standlee is a family-owned forage company located in Southern Idaho. Founded in 1981, Standlee grows and manufactures a wide variety of high-quality forage-based products, including bales, cubes, and pellets under the Standlee Premium Western Forage® brand. Standlee also manufactures bedding for many animal species and fortified food for rabbits, guinea pigs, and other small companion animals. Standlee is the forage leader throughout the United States and sold around the globe.

Plew joined Standlee in 2015 as the Executive Vice President, and partner. Prior to that, he worked for 11 years at the accounting firm Cooper Norman, where he became the youngest partner in the firm's history. Plew cultivated a wide range of skills and expertise related to strategy and business development, operational improvements, and financial assessment that make strong companies more successful. His time with Standlee has proven just that, with soaring success in sales, acquisitions, and leadership growth.

“We are very pleased to make this announcement; Scott has been a great partner that provides laser focus to the team as we seek to win every day. He is a great example of our Mission, Vision, and Core Values that drive our roadmap.” stated Dusty Standlee, CEO. “There is no doubt he will help us expand our reach and grow our success in the coming years.”
